A CACTUS CHRISTMAS

Join us for Once Upon a Christmas at the Knox Public Library! We will hold our annual bake sale, the book sale will be open, and RADA cutlery will be available during open hours on Friday, November 21 and Saturday, November 22. Miss Jolene will present "A Cactus Christmas," a special evening Storytime on Thursday, November 20 at 6:00PM! Pre-registration is open and space is very limited. Call, email, or stop in to register. Treats will be provided after Storytime!

Wrapping Station...Coming Soon!

The Holidays are right around the corner. Did you run out of wrapping paper before you got to that last gift? Need a little extra ribbon? Do you need a place to wrap gifts in secret, away from spying loved ones? Do you just need more space to spread out?? Bring your gifts and wrap them here. You can bring your own supplies, and we will also have a small supply of wrapping paper, ribbons, cards, gift tags, etc. available for last minute gifts or "just one more." Please supply your own tape. Look for the Wrapping Station in December, after Once Upon a Christmas.

We will also accept donations of wrapping materials. We ask that all items are Christmas or winter holiday-related, are new or in excellent condition, and are not musty, dusty, or torn. We will accept wrapping paper, tissue paper, gift tags, ribbons, bows, and gift bags that are Christmas or winter holiday-related. Cards don't need to be in boxes or contain full sets, we only ask that they be new (with envelope), without writing, and in excellent condition.

Succulents

Watch your email if you ordered succulents! They will arrive at the library sometime in November. We don't know for sure when they will come in, but we will contact you as soon as we know so that you can pick them up.

Library of Things

Are you hosting a crowd for Thanksgiving this year? Let us help with a variety of kitchen items that you can borrow free of charge. Just a few items from our kitchen collection include a selection of springform pans, a roaster oven, a stand mixer and attachments, and a hot beverage dispenser. Find all these and more in the Library of Things.

Browse the Library of Things at <https://knoxpubliclibrary.org/library-of-things/> or stop in the library. Any Clarion County library patron with an adult (18+) library card in good standing can borrow items for two weeks. First time borrowers will need to sign a waiver.

This collection is made possible by a grant from the McElhattan Foundation.

2025 Fund Drive

Our 2025 Fund Drive letters went out in October. If you live within our service area of the Keystone School District, you should have found it delivered to your mailbox. Everything we do at the library is for you, our patrons! Your support helps us offer programs, purchase new books, magazines, and movies, and provide resources to help you learn.

Please consider contributing to our annual Fund Drive. Your contribution helps cover our expenses through the end of the year, until our State Aid funding arrives early next year.

If you are outside our service area and wish to contribute, please contact the library. We appreciate everyone who uses the library, shares our social media posts, and talks to a friend or neighbor about the library. Thank you for your support!

New This Month

Release Date:
November 25, 2025

“Eighteen months and 11 lost bidding wars into house-hunting in the overheated Washington, DC suburbs, 37-year-old publicist Margo Miyake gets a tip about the perfect house, in the perfect neighborhood, slated to come up for sale in one month. Desperate to escape the cramped apartment she shares with her husband Ian — and in turn, get their marriage, plan to have a baby, and whole life back on track — Margo becomes obsessed with buying the house before it’s publicly listed and the masses descend (with unbeatable, all-cash offers in hand).

A little stalking? Harmless. A bit of trespassing? Necessary. As Margo infiltrates the homeowners’ lives, her tactics grow increasingly unhinged—but just when she thinks she’s won them over, she hits a snag in her plan. Undeterred, Margo will prove again and again that there’s no boundary she won’t cross to seize the dream life she’s been chasing. The most unsettling part? You’ll root for her, even as you gasp in disbelief.”

“Gabriela Rose, recovery agent extraordinaire, can find just about anything. Too bad she can’t seem to lose her gorgeous-but-infuriating ex-husband Rafer Jones. And now he needs her help. His cousin, Harley, is in trouble...big trouble.

As the president of a too-big-to-fail bank, he invested an astronomical amount of money in insuring some of the world’s most priceless artifacts at the urging of his board. It seemed like a low-risk, high-reward business move, so he jumped in with both feet. But recently, these insured pieces started going missing and worse, there’s no paper trail of Harley being directed to make these risky investments. Unless the artwork can be recovered soon, it looks like Harley is going to be heading to jail as the fall guy for an ingenious crime.

Gabriela knows what she must do: travel around the world with Rafer to find the missing works of art, keep Harley out of jail, and save both his skin and his bank. Along the way, she’ll encounter corruption, threats, murder, and mysterious dark forces.”

Early Literacy Corner

You can promote early literacy through easy, everyday activities. Here are some ideas! It's more than reading.

Math--November 3 is Sandwich Day. Practice fractions by cutting a homemade sandwich in half, then in quarters.

Stories--November 4 is Election Day. Ask your child what she would do if she was elected president of the United States of America.

Science--November 8 is STEAM Day. Create a simple marble maze using paper plates, construction paper, and tape. Or, sign out our Marble Run from the Library of Things!

Play--November 11 is Origami Day. Encourage your child to pick out a simple origami design and create it together.

Songs--Sing "Five Little Turkeys" with your child and keep count of each turkey on your fingers.

Writing--Spell out different words using beads, beans, pasta, etc.

Rhymes--November 27 is Thanksgiving. Ask your child to name as many words as he can think of that rhyme with "pie."
